

A rarity in 1986 — a steam-powered saw.

A wedding breakfast was given at Duff's Smorgasbord by parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Reed L. Coles, Harold, Ky.

Lake Ridge 9th Ward will be the setting for a reception the evening of Nov. 5 hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Harvey, Magna, parents of the bride.

An open house will be held on Nov. 8 at Georgetown Ward, Georgetown, Ohio, hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was graduated from the LDS Business College.

The bridegroom is attending LDS Business College and has completed an LDS California Arcadia mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D.
Coles

Guidelines for bridal announcements

Getting married? The Deseret News will be happy to publish your story, but certain rules must be followed.

WEDDINGS — Contact the Today Section, 237-2150, two weeks prior to the wedding to make a reservation. Bring pictures to the Deseret News at least one week before the ceremony.

per Agency Corp. at 237-2911. Classified advertising rates are charged for these announcements.

Utah Mothers Club
sets Fall Bazaar

